

The Young IPA Podcast Episode 121 – Jacinta Price Slams Voice to Parliament

Publish Date:

August 2019

The Young IPA Podcast is available on all podcast platforms and our YouTube channel.
Click here for Apple Podcasts/iTunes.

It has been a huge week for the Voice to Parliament debate so James and Adam bring you the latest. The Hong Kong protests are getting scarier, but it's all ok because Prince Harry is going to save the world at a climate change conference in Sicily. Heroes and Villains features a 79 year old lady about to go to jail for feeding cats, the right to make fun of parrots in Britain, a ban on "hip hip hooray" and the fall of Woodstock. James speaks to Alice Springs Town Councillor Jacinta Price ahead of her tour with True Arrow Events to talk about a Voice to Parliament and why she's against it, Indigenous Recognition and what we should be talking about when we talk about Indigenous Affairs (15:16-35:31). At the end of the show, James and Adam learn why too much noise and gendered language is banned from the Democratic Socialists of America's national conference, the MP caught playing Solitaire at work, the ATO raising the cost of beer and James debuts the new segment the YIPA Quiz "What Have We Missed?"