Publish Date:

December 2017

It's our last podcast for the year! This week James and Pete talk two new IPA reports, the UN calling for a strengthening of 18C, net neutrality and Victoria Police footing the organisers of Milo Yiannopoulos' tour the bill for police resources. We talk to Stuart Eaton about what the IPA has achieved this year and what we have planned next year (11:09-24:44) and we talk to John-Michael Howson about the state of Hollywood at the moment and what the new-age McCarthyism is doing to entertainment, and where it comes from (25:04-35:44).
