

Image not found or type unknown

Project Western Australia: A Growth and Productivity Agenda for the Next Government

Publish Date:

February 2012

The need for sound economic reform never ends. But there has never been a more important time than now.

In this important volume, John Hyde and Andrew Pickford pull together the most important priorities for the next government of Western Australia. Drawn from a wealth of material, these policy ideas and proposals are inspired by a vision of a free, rich, and globally prominent Western Australia.

If Western Australia wants to capitalise on its current success – and grow even wealthier, vibrant, and free – this book offers a guide to doing so.

Institute Of Public Affairs
Visit the IPA online: ipa.org.au

Download document