Name A Single Economist That Studies Economics

Publish Date:

June 2018

Thank you to everyone who has already donated to the IPA's End of Financial Year campaign! If you haven't already, there's still time to make a tax deductible donation to support the IPA's research:

Half of Australian workers are employed in medium and large businesses. So I guess the unions will be resisting the ALP's new plan to increase company taxes? It would leave 5.25 million people worse off, as Matthew Lesh pointed out today.

What's more, 0.33% of companies paid 63% of net company tax between 2011-16 as Matthew's Parliamentary Research Brief sent to federal politicians this week explains. But maybe Matthew should listen to the economic geniuses at The Saturday Paper – last night on The Drum the editor said no economist thinks cutting taxes for large companies is good for the economy:
